Marsh Electronics and MarVac Assemblies Announce Strategic Acquisition of Stark Electronics and Absolute Quality

Milwaukee, WI — November 22, 2024 — Marsh Electronics and MarVac Assemblies are excited to announce their acquisition of Stark Electronics and Absolute Quality, a highly respected regional distributor. This landmark move, rooted in a shared legacy dating back to the 1930s, marks a significant milestone in our ongoing journey of innovation and growth. Together, we aim to enhance our service offerings, strengthen our market presence, and continue delivering exceptional value to our customers and supplier partners. The acquisition will be officially finalized by the month-end.

Marsh Electronics has a long-standing commitment to providing outstanding value through our robust value-added division, MarVac Assemblies. The addition of Stark and Absolute Quality not only enhances our capabilities but also exemplifies our shared dedication to partnership and our drive to deliver top-quality solutions. This expansion significantly amplifies the value we provide to both our suppliers and customers across the regions we serve, allowing us to offer even more comprehensive solutions tailored to their unique needs.

“Our focus remains on the talented individuals within our teams and the loyal customers and suppliers we proudly support,” said Jim Banovich, CEO of Marsh Electronics.

Jason Zoubek “The acquisition allows Stark Electronics and Absolute Quality Manufacturing to join Marsh Electronics, giving customers access to a broader product line, more manufacturing locations, and ongoing investments in technology-driven innovation”.

As we integrate our companies, we are committed to preserving the rich histories and strong reputations of both organizations. We are thrilled about the potential for collaboration, innovation, and continued growth this acquisition brings.

We look forward to forging a brighter future together, built on our shared values, culture and commitment to excellence.

Jim closed with “Together, we are poised to unlock new opportunities and drive greater success through our combined expertise.”

This acquisition is just the beginning of an exciting new chapter for our company. We are confident that this partnership will enhance our collective ability to innovate, grow, and serve our customers better than ever before.
